CORVETTES IN PARADISE HOLIDAY ISLES RESORT NOVEMBER 7, 2009

Several of us had a great FUN weekend in Islamorada at Corvettes in Paradise. Most of us arrived on Friday around mid-day. It was mass scramble to clean the cars and get judged so we could relax on Saturday. Fortunately, the judges weren't too critical of sand as it was very windy and difficult to keep the sand off our cars. Our efforts paid off as Joe Cutroni, Tony Sotallaro, Steve Torp, Bill Villwock, Larry Marshall and yours truly came home with trophies.

The Renegades took Club Participation and provided the traditional alcohol enhanced jello shot refreshments (750 cups).

Dinner Friday at Islamorada Fish Company was excellent. Joe Tosta suggested Bentley's for Saturday night's indulgence. The food and musical entertainment was very enjoyable.

E.R. BRADLEY'S BRUNCH

Those of us that cruised up to West Palm for brunch at E.R. Bradley's were treated to a great meal and the usual great camaraderie of fellow club members.

After filling up on all the goodies, we took advantage of the great weather and took a drive up A1A through Palm Beach and then back down to Broward County. A few left to support Archie Aaron in the passing of his brother, some jumped off at various points, and a few went to Port Everglades to view the largest cruise liner in the world.
