VENICE CORVETTE CAR SHOW

MARCH 21, 2010

Bill & Carolina, Bob & Karen Siffermann, & Larry and I all met at the rest area on the alley Saturday morning. We ended up at a great BBQ restaurant for lunch and stuffed ourselves before stopping at Naples Outlet Shop for several hours looking for bargains. Karen outdid herself finding lots of goodies
While Carolina & I thought everything was way over-priced.

Bob & Karen went on to our hotel while the rest of us stopped at our favorite place the Flea Market off of 138 and had a ball. Unfortunately we were late and only had an hour. The four of us always have a great time—in fact, I still laugh just thinking about the stuff we did.

We arrived at the host hotel around 5PM where the Venice Corvette Club hosted a pizza party since the hotel's restaurant burned down the week before. Bill, Carolina, Larry, & I ended up at a great little family restaurant down the street from the hotel since we didn't want pizza.

Sunday morning was show time. Right after breakfast we arrived in time to clean our cars just before the COLD & HEAVY RAIN came. The vendors started packing up around 10 AM as it was getting colder and a huge storm was coming in. 11 AM Bill, Carolina, Larry, & I decided to leave for lunch at the Cracker Barrel before going to the Flea Market again. Bob & Karen stayed another hour at the car show before leaving.

Bill and Karen each won trophies that were mailed to them. All in all we did have a great time and will probably do it again next year.

AUTO GEEK SHOW MARCH 27, 2010

We had 10 cars join up for breakfast at the Painted Apple in Deerfield Beach. They all caravanned to the Auto Geek Show which is always fun to do. The weather was beautiful for the drive up and to spend the day with friends.

Don't forget to check our Web Site. Herb is doing a fantastic job!
