NPD CAR SHOW AT SILVER SPRINGS

I would like to thank everyone who attended the NPD All GM Show at Silver Springs for a great weekend. From the cruise to Cedar Key to the show at Silver Springs and the dinners too, everyone seemed to enjoy themselves in spite of all the afternoon rain. Bill, did your car dry out OK?

Norma and I would also like to thank everyone from making Norma's brother Wayne and his wife Renee feel welcome. Wayne and Renee said they had a great time with our club. Jim B.

Congratulations to Joe Tosta who just bought a 2013 Supersonic Blue Grand Sport convertible. It is a beautiful Corvette. Enjoy!

I would like to tell everyone what a great time we had on the run with the Renegades on Sept 13. Carol & David ,Tom & Penny were the only ones from our club showed. Sorry no one else did but you all missed a fabulous time. We went to Naples to a place called Spanky's then to Tin City. Food and company were great. Thanks to the Renegades for inviting us.

Penny

Dear Fellow Members,

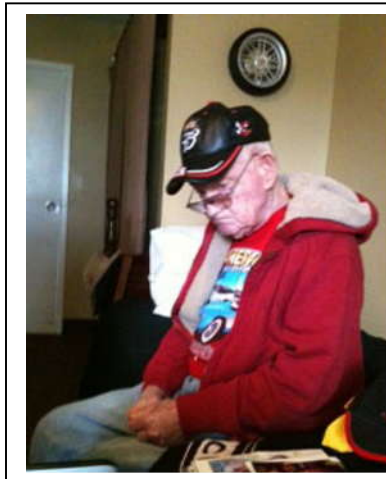

Our Prays go out to John & Denise Jeselnik & family, their daughter Susan's husband has been shot in the stomach last night. He is in bad condition. Her husband saw a women being mugged and he stop to help her, and the loser shot him in the stomach. He is under going surgery. Please Pray for him. They caught the LOSER. I'll keep you informed on his progress. Until then please keep your Prays going. Thank You

Your Fellow ACC Penny

Our past club member Archie Aaron passed away on Oct 11 Larry and I went to the funeral and Larry drove the 1958 Corvette from chapel to cemetery Marge Aaron passed away last year Both were very active members of ACC for many years.

Rest in Peace Archie,

Susan and Larry Bingaman
